

Unit 2: Birds - Study Questions

1. Discuss the important adaptations that have evolved in birds that make them well designed for flight.
2. Discuss the patterns of migration demonstrated by different bird species and the types of external cues they are known to use.
3. Discuss the functions of bird songs and the special adaptations that have evolved in birds that allow them to produce their songs.
4. How many species of birds have been documented in Maryland and around how many species occur annually in the state? Of that number, how many are known to breed in Maryland.